When you visit our offices or facilities

Our staff will strive to:

Keep waiting times to a minimum, however, bear in mind that if you do not have an appointment made prior to your visit, the person you may wish to speak to may not be available. If this is the case, another staff member will try to assist you. If you cannot be provided with the information that you require, your details will be recorded and the relevant staff member will contact you at their earliest convenience.

Speak with you in a polite and courteous manner and deal with your enquiries as quickly as possible.

Respect your privacy by providing you with a private meeting room for you to discuss your query in private, if you wish.

As far as possible, provide clean, accessible public offices that comply with occupational and safety standards, and facilitate access for all our customers.

When you telephone our offices or facilities, staff will:

- Aim to answer all calls promptly.
- Respond politely and courteously.
- Be helpful and provide you with clear and accurate information.
- Indicate when you can expect to hear from us if we have to call you back.
- Ensure calls do not ring out and if not answered, will utilise a voicemail facility, or, a message will be taken by another officer and arrangements made to return your call at the earliest opportunity.

When you contact us in writing, staff will:

- Acknowledge written correspondence (e.g. a letter/email) within 5 working days.

- Provide you with the contact details of the appropriate member of staff to let you know who is dealing with your enquiry.
- Ensure that all correspondence relating to your query includes a contact name, telephone number and reference where appropriate.

Aim to respond to your query within 20 working days.

If we cannot do this, we will contact you to explain why, and tell you when you will receive a full reply.

Welcome and value feedback from customers and use it to improve our services.

- We are fully committed to complying with the requirements outlined in the Official Languages Act, 2003 and the Official Languages (Amendment) Act, 2021.
- We will facilitate English/Irish to the maximum possible extent and recognise other languages as appropriate where resources allow.
- If you write to us in Irish, we will answer in Irish.
- We will publish corporate documents, such as our Corporate Plan 2024-2029, in both Irish and English.
- We will publish as much Irish language material as possible on our website www.monaghan.ie

What we ask of you

In order to help staff to keep our commitments, we ask that you:

- Quote reference numbers where available when corresponding with the Council.
- Ensure that application forms are submitted on time.
- Check that all forms are fully, accurately and legibly completed and signed prior to submission. Please also ensure that all supporting documentation requested is submitted.
- Inform us of any changes of circumstances, which might affect the decision made by us.
- Treat employees in a professional, courteous and civil manner.

Unacceptable Behaviour

Monaghan County Council aims to provide a high quality of service in a safe and secure environment. In order to achieve this, we ask our customers to note that the following behaviour will not be accepted:

- Use of violence and/or threat of violence against members of staff and/or members of the public.
- Verbal and/or non-verbal intimidation and bullying.
- Harassment of staff or members of the public by the use of abusive, racist, obscene or threatening language.
- Carrying out video and/or audio recordings or taking of photographs without the specific written authorisation of the Director of Services, Corporate Services and the inappropriate posting of same on social media.
- Posting on social media of comments which are derogatory, defamatory, abusive, threatening or inappropriate. These comments will not be responded to and may result in legal proceedings or other actions as the Council deems fit being initiated against the person responsible including referral to An Garda Síochána.

Customer Feedback

All customers have the right to the same standard of quality customer service, and we want to make sure that customers get the highest standard of service.

Monaghan County Council is committed to providing you with an effective service through a process of evaluation. You can help by:

E-mail your comments to info@monaghancoco.ie or eolas@monaghancoco.ie

Write to Monaghan County Council with your comments about our service or how we have provided that service to you. Monaghan County Council, The Glen, Glen Road, Monaghan, H18 YT50.

When you contact us with a complaint

Monaghan County Council continuously works to ensure we meet the highest standards of customer service, however, despite our best efforts, we may not always get it right.

Where a complaint is made every effort will be made to resolve the problem as soon as possible at the first area of contact. However, in instances where a complaint cannot be resolved at this level Monaghan County Council operates a transparent two-stage formal complaints procedure to ensure that all complaints are dealt with thoroughly, quickly and impartially.

Our Complaints Procedure sets out how you can make a complaint and can be viewed on our website: Complaints-Procedure
